Allies Firmly Make Up
Minds To Take Up
Arms Again

DECIDE TO END DEBATES

Prophecy That Turkey Will Cede
Adrianople After Tchatalja Is Stormed.

TURKEY PRESSED FOR MONEY

LONDON, JAN. 14.—Unless unforeseen events should change the current of affairs, the war in the near east will be resumed within a week and Europe will witness the horrors of a winter campaign.

The allies have firmly made up their minds to take up arms a second time.

The Turks last week were threatening to leave London and let matters take whatever course they might. Now the Balkan delegates are convinced that the Turks are merely drifting without a fixed policy, and they have decided to end the seemingly fruitless debates and wire pulling, and begin the battles anew where they left off more than a month ago.

Fail to Convene Grand Council.
The Ottoman government failed to convene the grand council today and apparently has no intention of meeting the allies' ultimatum on Adrianople.

The allies do not believe in the efficacy of the note which the powers will present at Constantinople because it is couched in too mild terms and simply advises Turkey to submit to the fate of war and abandon Adrianople for fear of complications in other parts of the empire at a time when Turkey could not find moral or financial support in Europe.

The Turkish government knows that this means nothing, because it is aware that the powers will be unable to agree on any coercive measures.

Have Given Powers Reasonable Time.
The Balkan kingdoms are anxious to obtain relief from the heavy burdens of keeping their armies on a war footing indefinitely. Wishing however, to observe all the diplomatic courtesies, they have given the powers a reasonable time to agree on the note, frame it and present it to Turkey.

But this once done, if Turkey, as is probable, fails to yield, the governments have agreed to call another sitting of the conference through Sir Edward Grey or Rechad Pasha, who, according to the rotation followed, would be the next presiding officer. They will then simply announce their decision definitely to break the negotiations and also thank England for the hospitality extended and the conditions of fair play under which the discussions occurred.

Immediately afterward, Sofia, Belgrade and Cetina will denounce the armistice and the Servian, Bulgarian and Montenegrin commanders will notify the Turks headquarters that hostilities will be resumed within 48 hours.

Easy to Predict Course of Events.
The allies say that it is easy to predict the course of events. After they have stormed Tchatalja, they prophecy, Turkey will be ready to cede Adrianople.

After their second resort to arms, the Balkan delegates assert, their peace terms will be different from those Turkey is now rejecting. They declare that Bulgaria will not be satisfied with a frontier line from Rodosto to Midia, but will draw it just before the gates of Constantinople and they suggest a war indemnity of $200,000,000 or more.

NO NEW CASES IN GALE.
Cairo, Ill., Jan. 14.—One more death but no new cases of spinal meningitis are reported from Gale, 40 miles north of here, where an epidemic has been prevalent for several weeks. A child of James Hale is the latest victim. The other patients are said to be improving and better conditions are expected soon.

GRAND CIRCUIT STEWARDS MEET

ANNOUNCE DATES FOR MEETS IN DIFFERENT CITIES

Admit New York and Windsor, Ont., to Circuit—Springfield Among Cities Refused Membership—Devereaux Chosen President.

PITTSBURG, PA., JAN. 14.—Stewards of the Grand circuit met here today and announced dates for meets of the circuit in the different cities admitted New York and Windsor, Ont., to the circuit and adopted a rule providing that if a horse wins three stake races amounting to $15,000; it must afterward compete in a class to which it is eligible by the lowest record it has made in any one of its winning races.

Applications for admission to the circuit were presented by Poughkeepsie, New York City, Windsor and Springfield, Ill. New York was admitted after Readville, Mass., already in the circuit announced that it would surrender its dates to New York. Windsor was given the opening week of the circuit and Poughkeepsie and Springfield were refused.

The rule providing that the horse winning $15,000 in three stake races must compete in the class in which it has made its lowest record, does not refer to futurities for three year old and under.

The stewards considered the three heat system of races. While this system was not adopted, it was recommended to all clubs in the Grand circuit. Under the three heat system each heat is a race.

The stewards elected the following officers:
H. K. Devereaux of Cleveland, president; Fred Postal of Detroit, vice-president and H. J. Kline, Cleveland, secretary.

Detroit was chosen for the annual meeting of the stewards.

The dates follow:

RHODE ISLAND FIRST TO PRESENT ELECTORAL VOTE

J. S. McCabe Wins Honors With H.
M. London of North Carolina
A Close Second.

Washington, Jan. 14.—J. S. McCabe of Rhode Island, won the quadrennial race to Washington with the electoral vote of his state today.

At 9 o'clock this morning when the office of the vice-president opened at the capitol Mr. McCabe was waiting to deliver the vote for Rhode Island. A short time later, H. M. London of Raleigh appeared with the vote of North Carolina. He had also tried to be the first arrival but a late train robbed him of the honor.

Ballot were received by messenger to day from West Virginia and by mail from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Connecticut, Delaware and New York. The presidential electors cast their votes in all states yesterday and all of the ballots probably will be locked up in Washington within the next ten days. The electors in each state are required to send two sets of ballots one by mail and one by messenger, the messenger receiving compensation at the rate of 25 cents a mile one way.

H. E. Devereaux, secretary of the late Vice-president Sherman became the official custodian of the electoral votes to day and will keep them under seal until the house and senate meet jointly Feb. 12 to canvass the vote and declare President Wilson officially elected.

CHARGED WITH PERJURY.
Chicago, Jan. 14.—Roger Decovry today was placed in the county jail when he failed to give a $10,000 bond to insure his appearance on a federal warrant charging him with perjury in connection with the Kirby private bank failure case.

Decovry was one of the witnesses who testified that Dr. William T. Kirby, head of the defunct bank, lost part of the institution's funds in a wire tapping fraud.

DECREE SETS ASIDE SALE.
Chicago, Jan. 14.—United States District Judge Landis today entered a decree setting aside the sale of the Illinois division of the Chicago & Milwaukee Electric railroad to the re-organization committee of which George M. Reynolds is chairman.

A resale was ordered. Attorneys for the committee immediately took an appeal to the United States circuit court of appeals.

Judge Landis recently held that there was a suppression of bidding in the original sale.

WASHINGTON, JAN. 14.—An attempt to revoke President Taft's recent order placing fourth class postmasters under the classified civil service and to remove from classification assistant postmasters and clerks in first and second class post-offices by an amendment to the post-office appropriation bill failed in the house today.

The bill carrying $278,489,781 was passed. The amendment offered by Representative Cullip of Indiana provided for the revocation of the executive order of October 15, 1912, by which president Taft exempted some 30,000 fourth class postmasters from the "political job" class and of the order of September 30, 1910, which classified assistant postmasters and postal clerks in first and second class offices, was defeated on a roll call vote, 141 to 106.

The Republicans voted practically solid against the amendment and they were joined by many Democrats. An amendment proposed by Representative Bartlett of Georgia, however, prohibiting the payment of per diem expenses to postoffice inspectors engaged in investigating or recommending applicants for positions as fourth class postmasters under the new order was incorporated in the bill by vote of 120 to 114.

An attempt was made by Representative Murdock of Kansas, aided by Representative Hobson of Alabama, to place in the bill an amendment to prevent the carrying through the mails of publications printing liquor advertisements into prohibition states. The committee was voted down in the committee of the whole and was ruled out of order when the bill appeared in the house.

The bill shows an increase of about $7,000,000 over the postal appropriations for the present year, due in part to the expense of the parcel post.

FISHER GIVES VIEWS ON INAUGURATION

SAYS IT SHOULD BE CELEBRATED BY A POPULAR RECEPTION

General Order of Parade Made Public by Major General Wood—General Wotherspoon Will Command First Division.

WASHINGTON, JAN. 14.—President-elect Wilson's inauguration, in the opinion of Secretary of the Interior Fisher should be celebrated by a "popular reception in the rotunda of the national capitol to which there should be no charge whatever for admission." Instead of an inauguration and as in the past, with accompanying concert and supper in the pension building, to which admission is charged. Mr. Fisher expressed this view to day in a letter to Senator Sutherland and Representative Sheppard, chairman respectively of the senate and house committee on public buildings and grounds.

In his letter Secretary Fisher points out that the inconvenience to the pension bureau and also to the Indian bureau which since the previous inauguration has been moved into the pension building would result in "most disastrous effects upon the administration of both bureaus."

General organization of the inaugural parade was to day made public by Major General Wood, grand marshal. The first division will be commanded by General W. Wotherspoon, U. S. A., consisting of representatives of the army, navy and marine corps including the corps of cadets at West Point and midshipmen at Annapolis.

General Albert Mills, U. S. A., will command the second division consisting of organized militia and cadets from schools and colleges. The marshal for the third division consisting of veteran and patriotic societies and organizations, including the grand army of the Republic and Spanish War veterans, has not yet been selected. Robert N. Parker, will command the fourth division consisting of civil organizations, clubs and societies.

A thousand Princeton University students and a big delegation from Woodrow Wilson's college Men's League in New York will march in the parade according to Joseph B. Truesdale, of New York, secretary of the league who to day conferred with inaugural officials.

PROHIBITION PARTY CONFERENCE OPENS AT INDIANAPOLIS

V. G. Hinshaw, National Chairman
Makes Plan For More Efficient Organization.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 14.—A plea for more efficient organization was made by Virgil G. Hinshaw of Chicago, national chairman of the prohibition party at the opening of the conference here today. He declared only sixteen states were organized. In asking for more money to carry on the work, the chairman suggested it would be better if the millionaires philanthropists would give their money to the prohibition party to stamp out the liquor traffic than to give it to Y. M. C. A., libraries and the like. He lamented the fact the party had never been endowed.

Mr. Hinshaw urged some form of vote pledging means of increasing the vote in coming elections. The national committee of the party will meet tomorrow.

It was decided to begin at once to secure pledges toward a million dollar campaign fund for use in 1916. The day was given over to the discussion of plan of action for the coming year.

On Thursday the national committee will convene here to decide whether the publication of the party's paper The Advance, at Chicago shall be discontinued.

DEMOCRATS SHOW BITTER FEELING

State Legislative Factions
Seek to Fix Dead-

NO SPEAKERSHIP CHOICE

Situation Has Not Cleared And Stubbornness of Fight for Control Is Plain

DEWEY AIDS MCCORMICK

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 14.—The thirtieth ballot on the speakership was reached today, but there was no choice. The situation seems now more complicated than ever. Today's ballots were:

	27th	28th	29th	30th
Tice	37	47	47	48
Rapp	9	9	7	9
McLaughlin	18	18	19	18
Ryan	2	3	3	3
Hubbard	15	15	15	16
Karch	23	22	23	24
Carter	25	26	26	25
Stedman	4	4	4	4
McKinley	3	2	2	1

Democrats in Sharp Debate.
The thirtieth ballot set going one of the most acrimonious storms of Democratic debate that has swept the Illinois house in a decade. Members of three Democratic factions hurled invectives at each other and liberated the pentup tide of feeling that has been growing more and more bitter since the convening of the general assembly Jan. 8. As a result the stubborn fight for control of the legislature and the election of two United States senators tonight appears more hopelessly involved than at any time since the legislators came to Springfield for the opening of the session.

(Anti-Lorimerites and pro-Lorimerites on the Democratic side of the house were the principal actors in today's fight while Republicans, Progressives and Socialists, sat quietly in their seats and watched the storm of bitterness run its course.

Roger C. Sullivan of Chicago, former Democratic national committee man from Illinois, and George Brennan of Chicago, one of Sullivan's chief political lieutenants, were grilled unsparingly by Democrats on both sides of the fight. Sullivan was accused of being responsible for the deadlock and Brennan was called "a lobbyist who has corrupted previous legislatures."

Poorman Starts Wordy Battle.
Representative Edward F. Poorman, of Mattoon, was the Democrat who precipitated the afternoon's series of trades, when in explaining his vote he declared:

"Lorimerism" was the principal issue of the speakership fight, and that a member who voted for Lorimer for senator could not be considered a Democrat.

Lee O'Neill Browne of Ottawa replied to Poorman and took up the cudgel for the thirteen Lorimer Democrats now in the house.

Browne denounced Roger Sullivan and insisted that the wet and dry fight was responsible for the deadlock.

Representative Poorman answered Browne and then Representative Frank J. Ryan of Chicago took the floor to blame corporation lobbyists for the present tangled situation. Ryan brought in the name of George Brennan as one of the Sullivan men who was responsible for the deadlock.

Dewey to Aid McCormick.
Colonel Chauncey Dewey, of Chicago arrived today from his western ranch to aid Medill McCormick in securing the caucus nomination of the Progressives for United States senator.

Former state senator Frank Funn of Bloomington and Frank M. Allen, millionaire plow manufacturer of Moline, also are candidates for the Progressive nomination.

The senate this afternoon received informally a ruling by Lieutenant Governor Oglesby that a majority vote of a quorum is sufficient to organize that body.

The ruling provoked a bitter fight on the part of Democrats and Progressives. Senator Keller of Ava led the Democratic opposition to the chair's prospective ruling.

The opposition failed to gather enough strength to overthrow the chair and after a motion to adjourn until tomorrow had failed, an agreement was reached to recess until 9 o'clock tonight.

Will Take Chances.
The Democrats weakened before the night session of the senate was convened and rather than go to a test vote on Lieut. Governor Oglesby's ruling that a majority vote when a quorum is present is sufficient to organize decided to take chances on a fair deal from the Republicans.

With four exceptions they lined up in support of the Republican candidate for secretary of the senate and then proceeded to assist in the election of a Republican postmaster, sergeant-at-arms and messenger. The office of president pro tem went over until tomorrow.

Senate officers were elected as follows:

JOHNSON IS LODGED IN COOK COUNTY JAIL

JUDGE CARPENTER WILL DECIDE ABOUT FORFEITURE OF BONDS

Attempts to Hood-Wink Deputy Marshall Meyers, In Order to Spend the Night at Home—Given Preference of Jail or Hotel.

CHICAGO, JAN. 14.—Jack Johnson, the negro heavy weight pugilist, was taken to the county jail here tonight to await the judgment of Judge George A. Carpenter of the States district court as to whether his bail bond of $30,000 should be forfeited. Johnson is said to have attempted to hood-wink Deputy United States Marshal Marshall Meyers in order to spend the night at his own home instead of in jail.

When the pugilist's party, consisting of his white wife, two white seconds and valet, reached here after being turned back at Battle Creek, Mich., from a Canada bound train, Johnson at once asked to talk over the telephone to Charles F. De Woody, superintendent of the secret service of the United States department of justice. At the conclusion of the conversation Johnson told Deputy Marshal Meyers that Mr. De Woody would allow him to spend the night at his own home.

Meyers refused to accept the order unless from Mr. DeWoody direct. The pugilist and retinue were taken to the home of DeWoody's residence and there DeWoody ordered the negro to jail.

"Johnson, if you did not mean to stay out of the jurisdiction of the federal court why did you ship two of your automobiles to Canada," demanded Mr. DeWoody. The pugilist hesitated in his reply and Mr. DeWoody gave him the choice of being held in an hotel in charge of Marshals or taken to jail.

"The jail is not bad to me, I'll go there," replied Johnson.

He was allowed to take his wife home and change his clothes and then was locked up in his old tier in the county jail.

GOVERNOR CARROLL OF IOWA URGES LAWS FOR PRISON REFORM

Sends Final Biennial Message to Assembly—Would Create New Office of State Sheriff.

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 14.—Governor B. F. Carroll in his final biennial message to the 35th general assembly of Iowa, this afternoon laid special stress on the enactment of adequate laws for prison reform, compensation of workmen injured in accidents, good roads and enlargement of the state capitol grounds.

Both branches of the legislature met in joint session at two o'clock to listen to the reading of the message. Among other things their retiring governor recommended the creation of an official to be known as a state sheriff who would be available for the investigation of such crimes as that which occurred at Villisca about a year ago, when a whole family was murdered one night. No clue to the assassins have ever been discovered. The arbitration of the strikes and labor disputes and plans for the elimination of the so-called "Padrone" system in employment agencies of the state, were among other recommendations.

On the same day the medal awarded by congress to Captain Rostron will be presented to him by President Taft. ## REVEAL WORLD-WIDE TRADE AGREEMENT

Covers Every Nation Excepting The United States

DAVIS ADMITS FACT

President of American Aluminum Company Tells House Committee Story.

HOUSE MEMBERS ARE AMAZED

Washington, Jan. 14.—The existence of an international agreement covering the aluminum industry was revealed at tonight's session of the house committee on ways and means. President Arthur V. Davis, of the aluminum company of America, admitted that his company, the only aluminum manufacturing in the United States owned the Canadian Aluminum company, which in turn, had perfect agreements with all of the six or seven foreign aluminum companies. This agreement, he said, covers all the world except the United States which he admitted to Representative Rainey, of Illinois, was excepted because there is a law here prohibiting it.

The admission of this agreement amazed members of the committee some of whom pointed out that, along with previous testimony regarding foreign trusts, in other industries, it presented a problem never before faced by a tariff making committee.

Davis Wrote Agreement.
Mr. Davis testified that he and his London representative wrote the agreement made by his Canadian plant, with all the plants in Europe.

"I submitted the proposed form of the agreement," he said "to Attorney General Wickham, and when the agreement was signed, I sent Mr. Wickham a copy of it. Mr. Davis did not say what action the attorney general took in the matter."

"But Mr. Wickham had no cognizance of this agreement between Canada and the rest of the world, except the United States?" interrupted Representative Palmer.

Mr. Davis was asked if he had a copy of the agreement.

He said he had not and said while he personally would have no objection to filing it, he feared the other parties to it might object.

Protests Against Reduction.
Mr. Davis protested against any reduction of the tariff which the tentative Democratic plan proposes to cut in half. Asked if he expected much competition, in view of the existing agreement he replied that there was competition, though members of the committee declined to be convinced. When the committee adjourned at mid-night members expressed the suspicion that the aluminum company of America might be interested in the $10,000,000 company being organized in North Carolina in view of the agreement with European plants.

Importers of European wood pulp and paper today urged the customs court to authorize the admission of those products free of duty to the United States from all countries having "favored nation" treaties with America. Albert H. Washburn, counsel for importers of wood pulp and papers from Norway, Sweden, Austria-Hungary, Russia, Germany, Belgium, and Great Britain occupied practically the whole day in an effort to convince the court that these commodities should be free.

Bond to Extend Privilege.
Free wood pulp and paper is granted to Canada on all unrestricted exportations by the only operative clause of the Canadian reciprocity treaty and Mr. Washburn maintained that the United States government was bound by its treaties to extend the privilege to Europe. He said America had granted Canada a gratuitous concession which could not be claimed by other nations under favored nation treatment. The lawyer attacked the government's attitude that the question could be decided by the courts because it is political and not judicial. He said that the customs court was competent to decide the issue and quoted President Taft's message to congress saying that it had been referred to the courts for determination as a contradiction of the government's present attitude. The president had directed the treasury department to assess the duties on those European products pending the outcome.

Assistant Attorney General Wampler will argue the government's side tomorrow.

PORTO RICO LEGISLATURE CONVENES

San Juan, Porto Rico, Jan. 16.—The seventh legislative assembly convened today. The message of Governor George R. Colton discovered commercial, industrial and sanitary conditions in the island. ### ALUMNI ASSOCIATION IN ENTHUSIASTIC GATHERING

Large Number Attends Exercises at Brown's Business College—Program Was Varied and Interesting.

A most enthusiastic gathering of the Alumni association of Brown's Business college was held Tuesday evening at the college. Over 250 were present and the building was hardly adequate to comfortably handle the crowd. The college was prettily decorated in pennants.

An interesting program was carried out which included spirited addresses by Prof. Q. W. Brown, Principal W. C. Springgate, Clyde Black, president of the Alumni association, Henry J. Rodgers, telegrams were also read from D. G. Boleyn of Los Angeles, Calif., a former instructor of the Brown's Business colleges and H. E. Read of St. Louis. Several musical numbers were given with vocal selections by Miss Fern Haigh and Miss Vascocellos.

An old fashioned spelling match was also part of the entertainment and the honors were won by Miss Dana Baird of Winchester, who was presented a beautiful pennant. Several young men from the Y. M. C. A. also gave an exhibition on the horizontal bars and other gymnastic stunts. They were dressed as clowns and among them were Messrs. Johnson, Osborne, Walker, Brewer and Boxell.

The Alumni association is only a recent organization but it is steadily growing. To start a fund for the association the twenty-one members of the class of 1912 made a donation of $14. ## CHRIST SAVES MANKIND

BECAUSE OF HIS LOVE

Rev. W. A. Bodell in Strong Sermon Tells of the Reason Why Man Can Be Saved.

Before one of the largest congregations yet assembled at the Northminster church revival, Rev. W. A. Bodell told of the love of God that made it possible for man to be saved. The music was led by Rev. W. E. Spooner and the choir chairs were completely filled by singers. The speaker took for his text John 11:39 "Lord, Behold he whom thou lovest is sick." He said in part:

There are many who have a misconception with reference to the love of God. They make more of their love to him than they do of his love to them. Our love to him has been laid down by some as the condition of salvation, but we are saved not because of our love to him, but because of his love for us. It is because of his matchless love to us that he provided a way by which we may be forgiven, renewed and glorified. Love to him is not a condition of salvation, but a result of it. We love him, not to be saved, but because we have been saved. "We love him because he first loved us."

Now Martha and Mary understood this when they sent a messenger to Jesus singing, "Behold he whom thou lovest is sick." The ground of their plea was not their love to him, but his love to them.

Our love to him is not to be mentioned with his love to us. His has neither height, nor depth, nor length, nor breadth. It is higher than height, it is longer than length. Then Apostle Paul said: "I am persuaded that neither height, nor depth, nor length, nor breadth shall be able to separate us from the love of God as it is in Christ Jesus."

It is said that an archbishop of Paris at the time of the French wars was condemned to death. While awaiting his doom, a few days before his execution, he drew upon the walls of his cell the form of a cross, at the top he wrote height, at the bottom depth, at one side length, and at the other end breadth. It is a love that passeth knowledge.

"Could we with ink the ocean fill. And were the skies of parchment made. Were every stalk on earth a quill. And every man a scribe by trade; To tell the love of God above. Would drain the ocean dry. Nor could the scroll contain the whole. Though stretched from sky to sky."

Best assortment in Suits can be found at Garland & Co's at greatly reduced prices.

Use Buying Judgment

When you order meat for your table be careful to have just what you want selected. Some cuts of meat look well but have very little nutriment in them. Others possibly do not equal them in appearance but reach the high mark in food value. If you tell us what you want it is our pleasure to try and select for you meat that will come up to your requirements. Nothing can take the place of meat on the family table and it is no more costly than other eatables if good selections are made. We are ready to select steaks or roasts or boiling pieces for you and then to make prompt delivery.

WILSON WANTS PROGRESSIVE DEMOCRATS ELECTED AS SENATORS

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 14.—"I hope Progressive Democrats will be elected in every state," said President-elect Wilson today in referring to the contests incident to the election of United States senators in Maine, New Hampshire, Illinois, South Dakota and Tennessee. The governor took emphatic exception to editorials and published reports purporting to describe his attitude as preferring the selection of a Progressive Republican in cases where the other alternative would be the choice of a "standpat" Republican. The only thing I am interested in, in any state," he said, "is the election of the Democrats."

In connection with the Maine situation Mr. Wilson was informed of reports that farmers who had been urging Progressive Republican legislators to vote for the re-election of Senator Obediah Gardner (Dem.) were being told that Mr. Wilson wished to appoint Senator Gardner as secretary of agriculture.

"There is no foundation for these reports," said the president-elect. "So far as I have interested myself, it has been for Obediah Gardner for senator."

The president-elect was told that his speech yesterday in which he said he would not be acting as a partisan if he picked "Progressives and only Progressives" had caused the inquiry as to whether he meant the Progressive wing of the Democratic party or included in his statement Progressive Republicans as well.

"I wasn't thinking in specifications," he said. "I was just thinking in tendencies and the state of mind of the country."

He added that there was "nothing novel" in the position he took, as he had throughout the campaign championed Progressive policies and action.

TWENTY SEVENTH BALLOT SHOWS NO CHANGE.

First Roll Call Tuesday in Illinois Legislature Indicates Mix-up Is As Bad As Ever.

Springfield, Jan. 14.—The twenty seventh roll call on the speakership in the house of the Illinois legislature, taken at 10:30 o'clock this morning, showed that the deadlock was as stubborn as it had been a week ago when the legislature convened for the opening of the Forty-eighth General Assembly.

Charles Karch of Belleville, one of the Democratic candidates for the speakership, received new support but it was not sufficient to make any practical change in the situation.

With six absentees in the house, there were but 116 votes cast on the twenty-seventh ballot.

Homer J. Tice of Greenview, with the Republicans solidly behind him, continued to be the leading candidate.

The Twenty Seventh Ballot.

The vote on the twenty-seventh ballot follows:
Tice, 47; Rapp, 9; McLaughlin, 18; Ryan, 2; Hubbard, 15; Karch, 23; Carter, 25; Stedman, 4 and McKinley, 3.

Representative David E. Shanahan of Chicago, dean of the house, representing the Republicans; Medill McCormick of Chicago, representing the Progressives, and John J. McLaughlin of Chicago, representing the Sullivan Democrats held a conference on the floor of the house during the session this afternoon.

These three leaders agreed, tentatively to hold a limited number of roll calls at each session and then take a recess to permit a conference between factions.

Representative O'Rourke, democrat, flitted with the Progressives on the twenty-eighth ballot, when in a speech explaining his vote he charged the democratic side of the house with responsibility for the deadlock and ended by voting for Carter, the Progressive candidate. O'Rourke's action follows a proposal, said to have been made by him last week to Progressive leaders, and declined by them. O'Rourke's proposal was that the Progressives name one man, the Republicans name two and the Democrats name three to vote among themselves on the different candidates and eliminate the low man on each vote.

In his pronouncement to day O'Rourke said he was for the Peoria platform, the initiative and referendum and a constitutional convention and was opposed to the "insane" method of acting on legislation at the eleventh hour of the session.

O'Rourke's action increased Carter's total on the twenty-eighth ballot from 25 to 26 votes.

At the end of the twenty-eighth ballot, on motion of Republican Leader Shanahan the house recessed until 3 o'clock this afternoon. Informal conferences of Democrats, Republicans and Progressives took place at the St. Nicholas and Leland hotels between noon and 3:30 p. m. at which time the house resumed balloting. There were no surface indications of a break this afternoon and it was predicted that the deadlock would go over to Wednesday.

Changes From Friday's Ballot.

Changes from the twenty-sixth ballot, the last on Friday, to the twenty seventh ballot, the first on Tuesday.
Burns from McKinley to Karch.
Duvall, voted for Karch on the 26th, absent on the 27th.
Garesche from McKinley to Karch.
Gorman from McLaughlin to Karch.

Graham from McLaughlin to Karch.

Hoffman from Ryan to Karch.
Igoe from Rapp to Karch.

W. W. McCormick from McLaughlin to Karch.

O'Donnell from McKinley to Karch.
Rhinehart from Rapp to Karch.
Arthur Roe from McKinley to Karch.

Schubert from McKinley to Karch.
Stocklassa from Ryan to Karch.

Karch gained 12 votes, and lost Duvall, who was absent when the first ballot was taken to day, giving him a net gain of 11 votes on the 27th ballot over the 26th. Of his gains Karch took 5 from McKinley, three from McLaughlin, two from Ryan and two from Rapp.

IN THE SENATE.

When the senate met at 10 o'clock this morning each member's desk was piled up with official stationery, supplied by Secretary of State in the customary fashion. Lieut. Gov. Oglesby ordered Sergeant-at-Arms to have all stationary and other supplies removed and returned to the Secretary of State, on the ground that the senators are not entitled to these requisites until the adoption of a resolution authorizing the same. Through the refusal of the Democrats and Progressives to vote on the stationary resolution last week, it failed of adoption.

At the request of Lieut. Gov. Elect O'Hara, Jacob Tienowitz of Chicago was appointed president's page.

Miss Helen Ryan of Springfield was named temporary senate stenographer, at the instance of Senator Carroll, Democrat.

Only a dozen senators were present and, at 10:15, on motion of Senator Barr, a recess was taken until 5 o'clock this afternoon.

GOV. WILSON SENDS FINAL MESSAGE

MAKES FORMAL APPEAL FOR PROGRESSIVE LEGISLATION.

Declares in Favor of Commission
Form of Government For Cities—
Hopes For Revision of Statutes Governing Corporations.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 14.—President-elect Woodrow Wilson, in his capacity as governor of New Jersey sent his second annual message to the legislature which convened today. It is his last formal appeal to the legislature for the completion of the program of progressive legislation for which he declared himself when he took office.

Foremost among the laws advocated are a radical revision of the statutes governing corporations, and better laws in the matter of drawing juries. The governor recommends the commission form of government for cities, and speaks strongly in favor of economies in the state administration. In conclusion he expresses the hope that New Jersey will ratify the constitutional amendments providing for a tax on incomes, and the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people. The governor's message was written while the president-elect was in Bermuda, and constitutes his only political writing since election.

Laxity of Corporation Laws.
At the outset of the document there is a personal note of regret at leaving New Jersey, and an expression of gratitude and obligation to those who stood by him in carrying out reforms. Almost without preface, however, the governor calls attention to the laxity of the state's corporation laws. With the hope that New Jersey shall never again be called "the mother of trusts," the message is addressed to a legislature that is for the first time during his administration, Democratic in both branches.

The corporation laws of the state notoriously stand in need of alteration, the governor says. They are manifestly inconsistent with the interests of the people in the all-important matter of monopoly, and as they stand, far from checking monopoly, they actually encourage it. The whole country has set its face against this method of forming vast combinations and creating monopoly. Governor Wilson declares, "I am sure that the people of New Jersey," he continues, "do not dissent from the common judgment that our law must prevent these things and prevent them very effectively."

The governor says the statutes of the state should be amended to provide some responsible official supervision of the whole process of incorporation and provide, in addition, salutary checks upon unwarranted and fictitious increases of capital. No legitimate business will be injured or harmfully restricted by such action. These matters affect the honor and good faith of the state, and should be acted upon at once and with clear purpose.

Reforms in Jury Drawing.
After declaring that the state should enact legislation to protect its people from irresponsible persons who offer for sale securities of every sort, the governor turned to the question of jury drawing. "Why has no legislature ever seriously and earnestly set itself to correct this condition," he asks. "The drawing of grand juries, and even upon occasion the drawing of petit juries, is notoriously subject to political influence and control in this state, and this can and should be remedied."

Continuing the governor pointed out reforms in the state's taxation system, and suggested that the board of public utility commissioners be granted additional powers to eliminate dangerous grade railroad crossings in "a thoroughly practical fashion." The board, he urged, should also be given power to require railroads to man their trains with adequate crews.

While commending the legislature of 1911 for passing the act permitting cities and towns to adopt the commission form of government, the governor urged a fuller extension of the system.

"The path of reform in that field," he added, "is unquestionably the path of greater freedom. The question of municipal government is perhaps the most serious question concerning the organization of methods of government that now confronts us as a nation. I covet for New Jersey the honor of showing the way of liberty and self-respecting re-organization."

"The farmer has not been served as he might be," continues the governor. "We have set up and subsidized agricultural schools, horticultural schools, schools of poultry breeding, and the rest, and they have done excellent work. But a more effective way still has been found by which the farmer can be served. Lectures and schools and experimental farms attached to schools like laboratories are excellent but they can not of themselves push their work home. Some states have gone much beyond this and we should follow them with zest."

Economy Needed.
On the question of economy, Governor Wilson says: "The business of the state is conducted with a waste, a duplication of effort, confusion and conflict of function which no business enterprise could survive for six months. There is an extraordinary multiplicity of boards, commissions, departments and miscellaneous offices, overlapping, connected without being coordinated independent of one another and yet naturally belonging to a single systematic whole, which ought to be drawn together, simplified, brought into proper relations, pruned, and put upon a footing of efficiency which will also be a footing of economy and quick responsibility. We are wasting the public moneys and are not getting the results which good business methods would get."

The governor dwells at length on "the need and demand" for a constitutional convention in New Jersey and concludes his message with an appeal for the ratification of the two proposed amendments to the national constitution. He says:

"Two great amendments to the constitution of the United States await the ratification of New Jersey, the amendment conferring upon the congress of the United States in unmistakable terms the power to levy taxes on incomes, and the amendment providing for the election of senators of the United States by the direct vote of the people. I can not too strongly urge upon the legislature the ratification of both these amendments. We can not keep our place among the progressive states of the union and reject them. Indeed, we shall be in a very small minority if we do reject them."

Compliments Senator Fielder.
"May I not, in closing, express the satisfaction I feel in the knowledge that when I lay down the duties of governor I shall leave them in the hands of Senator Fielder, a man of a type to which the people of the state desire their public men to conform. I look back with the greatest admiration to that fine group of men in the houses whose names all the state knows and honors, who set the pace in the days when the state was to be redeemed. It is men like these who have rendered the policies and reforms of the last two years possible. It is men like these who will carry them forward, and the people of the state will sustain them. They will sustain no others. We betide the individuals or the party group that turn away from that path. The future is with those who serve, and who serve with out secret or selfish purpose. A free people has come to know its own mind and its own friends."

HAS NO UNFRIENDLY FEELING AGAINST PARCEL POST.

In a circular which has been sent to all of the officials and agents of the National Express company, the president of the company, James C. Fargo, gives the views of the company toward the government parcel post. The circular follows:

Through the fuller installation of the government parcel post on January 1, 1913, a new system, for which there seems to be a demand, has entered the transportation field, affording the public an additional service on shipments of 11 lbs. and less which at no time in the past has this company opposed nor will it in the future. This policy must be strictly maintained by our officials and employees by refraining from any attitude unfriendly to or of criticism of the parcel post, devoting their time and attention towards the continued development of the efficiency of the company's service to the public.

With its enormous resources and vast commercial interests, this country is large enough for both express companies and the parcel post. Each will serve the public in its respective capacity, and the conclusion can safely be drawn that the shipping community will carefully consider the benefits to be derived from the service rendered by both systems, utilizing that which best meets their requirements.

OLD AT 40.

Some Younger at 65 Than Others
Are at 40 Years.

So many people whom you meet about the time they reach 40 begin by saying "I can't do this, and I can't do that, because I'm getting old now," they begin to act old, feel old and they are older in appearance than many who are much more advanced in years.

When you begin to feel old, when your energy begins to fail build yourself up with delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol. It is a wonderful blood-maker and strengthener.

Mr. J. N. Kelley, aged 75 who lives at Lake Charles, La., says: "I took Vinol for a run-down condition, it not only built up my strength, but I feel fifteen years younger than I did before taking it."

Thousands of old people have found in Vinol just the medicine they need to build up the feeble, weakened system and create strength. If it fails, we return your money. Lee P. Allcott, Druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

PROBATION THE

ISSUE IN TEXAS

Austin, Texas, Jan. 14.—Prohibitionists and those opposed to prohibition promise a vigorous fight for and against a state-wide prohibition measure at the thirty-third session of the Texas legislature, which convened at the capitol here today. An effort also is to be made to modify the restrictions placed on railroads in this state. While Texas admittedly needs railroads as badly as any state of the union, it is claimed that no other state exacts so much from the transportation companies. An amendment to the present stock and bond law also is to come up. The first important business program will be the formal election of Congressman Morris Sheppard, the winner in the primary to the United States senate to succeed Colonel R. M. Johnston, who is filling the unexpired term of Senator Bailey by appointment of the governor.

GOVERNOR CRAIG

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 14.—The inauguration as governor of North Carolina of Locke Craig, of Asheville, took place here today in the presence of thousands of persons, the city being crowded with visitors. A parade was the feature of the day, numerous military companies from all sections of the state being in line, with many civic organizations. The inauguration exercises were held on the east front of the capitol, where the oath of office was administered, after which the new governor delivered his inaugural address, outlining some of the purposes for which his administration will stand.

THE LATE GEORGE CREAMER.

The short notices made of George Creamer, who "passed on" last week were probably suggested by some one who did not know of the relation of the Creamer family to the early history of Jacksonville and Morgan County. To begin with, George Creamer was older than 60 years, given in his obituary notices. He was about 64 or 67 years of age.

When I began going to school in Jacksonville in the West District school, in October, 1857, I was placed with George Creamer as seat mate. It was in the second story room in the west side (boys side) of the building, and the teacher was Miss Elizabeth Chenery, a bright and beautiful young lady from Montaire, Mass.

George Creamer was the son of D. C. Creamer, who was a tailor here in the early days, perhaps as far back as the '30's, for in 1840 he was mentioned as one of the tailors of the town, and in 1846-8, he was Coroner, as he was in 1848-50. In 1850 he is mentioned as being Coroner. And that year it was said of him: "D. C. Creamer, known as the fashionable merchant tailor, occupied the one story frame on Hatfield's corner," that means where Myers Bros now are.

The Creamer family were well known to all the early settlers.

George Creamer had a brother, Charles, who was running on the old "Great Western R. R.," now Wabash, as train boy in 1858, at the time of the excursion to Naples in the spring of that year, to see the street full of water, that being a year of great overflow in the Illinois and other western rivers. Charlie afterwards came a "typo" and worked on the Journal among the "noble army" of prominent people who have helped to make this newspaper what it is.

Later Charles married a daughter of Thomas Jenfrison, who clerked for Judge Kirby in his abstract office. They were married about 1855 or '58. Charles Creamer and his wife moved away from here not long after their marriage.

After he grew up George Creamer went away from here and was gone until a few years ago, when he returned to make this his last earthly home.

The young people of to day can form little idea of the intense independence of spirit of our American pioneers. George Creamer was one of the last of the early pioneer families of Jacksonville, and he maintained that rand independence down to his last years.

BREAKING OUT
SPREAD ON LEG

Formed Large Blotches. Itching Terrible. Ugly Sores Would Break Open and Run. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured in Few Weeks.

Hiltop, Kan.—"About two years ago I began to notice a breaking out on my leg. At first it was very small but soon it began to spread until it formed large blotches. The itching was terrible and almost constant. Many nights I could not sleep at all. After scratching it to relieve the itching it would burn so dreadfully that I thought I could not stand it. For nearly a year I tried all kinds of salves and ointment, but found no relief. Some salves seemed to make it worse until there were ugly sores, which would break open and run. "One day I saw an advertisement of Cuticura Remedies. I got a sample of the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment and began by washing the sores with the Cuticura Soap then applying the Cuticura Ointment twice a day. I noticed a change and got more Cuticura Soap and Ointment and in a few weeks I was cured. It has healed so nicely that no scar remains." (Signed) Mrs. Anna A. Lew, Dec. 17, 1911. Cuticura Soap and Ointment do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough skins, itching, scaly scalps, dandruff, dry, thin and falling hair, chapped hands and shapeless nails with painful finger-ends, that it is almost criminal not to use them. Sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston." Tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

OFFICERS CHOSEN FOR LOCAL FARMERS INSURANCE COMPANY

Annual Meeting Was Held Tuesday. Reported Presented Show Company's Business in Satisfactory Condition. Many Such Organizations in Illinois.

The annual meeting of the Jacksonville Farmers' Mutual County Fire Insurance company was held Tuesday when officers were elected and the usual matters of business were discussed. The reports of officers were received and showed the company's affairs to be in satisfactory condition. Suitable resolutions were adopted with reference to William Patterson, now deceased, and for so long a time active in the management of company affairs.

The stockholders met at the court house and after attending to formal matters of business elected three directors to serve for a period of three years, A. A. Dyer, J. A. Litter and Charles S. Black. The term of Edmund Blackburn as a director of the company expired but he declined reelection on the ground that advancing years made it hard for him to attend the sessions of the directors. His decision was accepted with regret for his counsel and advice had been of great service to the company management for many years past. He was a charter member of the company and for thirty-six years has served as a director, a very unusual record.

The directors met following the stockholders' meeting and re-elected the following officers:

President—Amos Swain. Vice-president—George Coultas. Treasurer—W. H. Rowe. Secretary—A. C. Rice.

In giving his report, Mr. Rice presented some very interesting figures on insurance in Illinois. He stated that there are today in the state 225 farmers' mutual companies with policies covering business to the extent of $271,230,461. He said that the Morgan county company has now 559 policies in force, covering insurance of $1,040,875 and that the policies are held by 425 persons.

An assessment of 24 cents on the $100 of insurance levied to pay the losses of the past year, $1701, and to provide a balance of a few hundred dollars for ordinary expenses this year.

The following resolutions were adopted with reference to the death of William Patterson:

Resolved, By the Jacksonville Farmers' Mutual County Fire Insurance Company, That in the passing of William Patterson we have lost a good member of our company. Mr. Patterson was a public spirited citizen, a charter member of our company, one of its directors until his disabilities prevented a further continuance in that office. He served the company as president for a longer period than has any other. He was ever mindful of the company's welfare and his efforts were for its promotion.

Resolved, That we sincerely mourn his loss; extend our sympathy to his family, and direct that these resolutions be spread on our minutes and a copy furnished the public press.

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mannert, in the Maryland block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal growth of hair. Sold by leading druggists, and in 10c stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. TWO SIZES—50c and $1.00 Sold at Gilbert's Pharmacy.

Healthy Mothers

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother aids nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend, and no expectant mother should fail to use it. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant and elastic those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, prevents numbness of limbs, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. The system being thus prepared by Mother's Friend dispels the fear that the crisis may not be safely met. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother, and she is left a healthy woman to enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature. BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

Fires In Jacksonville

Monday's Courier had the following:

ROOF CATCHES FIRE

"Saturday evening the roof of the residence of Newton Sargent at 350 West Court street caught fire about 6:30 o'clock, burning a small hole. The fire department was called, but a Babcock extinguisher was used by a member of the department in putting out the fire.

Tuesday's Journal tells of a fire at 302 North East street, caused by a coal oil lamp, at which a woman was badly burned. The Journal says: "In the meanwhile the fire department was called and extinguished the fire with the chemical." Only lack of information prevents EVERY HOME having its own Babcock. The cost is small; anybody can use it; it is always ready. There is nothing secret about it, and if you call at our office, 110 South West street, we will be glad to explain it to you fully.

THE WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

BEARS CONTINUE THEIR CAMPAIGN
MARKET UNSETTLED BY A SERIES OF SHARP DRIVES.
Weakness of the Foreign Markets and Possibility of Further Hostilities in the Balkans Tended to Depress the Home Market.

(By Associated Press.)

New York, Jan. 14.—The bear campaign was continued today in the stock market which was unsettled by a series of sharp drives. Quotations were lowered in all departments and at intervals there were feverish fluctuations. Support was given from time to time, however, and the market was not permitted to become demoralized. There was considerable liquidation of speculative holdings and the extended activities of the bear faction were indicated by the largely increased demand for stocks in the "loan crowd."

Politics has come to the forefront once more as a potent influence in the stock market. The attention given to the two last speeches of President-elect Wilson and the interpretation placed upon them as indications of the probable character of the incoming administration have been of coming direct bearing on operations on stocks this week and have been utilized ineffectively by traders on the short side of the market. Weakness of the foreign markets and the possibility of resumption of hostilities in the Balkan also tended to depress the home market. Still another depressing influence was in the unsettlement of the copper metal market.

The copper stocks were again actively and weak but losses in this group were no more pronounced than in steel, Reading, Union Pacific and other standard shares, among which recessions ran to more than three points. Steel receded to 65½, the lowest since the forepart of last year. Among the less prominent shares there were heavier declines.
American tobacco broke 18 points and others from 4 to 10.

INSURANCE COMPANY OF FRANKLIN NAMES OFFICERS

Directors Chosen at Annual Meeting Held at Franklin—Good Reports Heard From All Departments of Association.

The Franklin Farmers' Mutual Fire and Lightning Insurance company held their regular annual meeting in Olinger's hall at Franklin Tuesday. A large number of the stockholders were present and splendid reports were heard from the various departments of the organization. Part of the business was the election of officers which resulted as follows:

President—William M. Rees.
Secretary and treasurer—E. D. Scott.

Four directors were re-elected for three years as follows: John L. Lukeman, John E. Davenport, N. B. Rhorer and Thomas Irlan. Charles Story had one year yet to serve as director but as he has moved to this city, August Henry was named as his successor, and L. F. Boughman, who resigned, with two more years yet to serve, was succeeded by William E. Reynolds.

G. W. Austis was elected a delegate to the state convention which will take place Jan. 30 in Springfield. The company also voted that gasoline tanks of over five gallons should be placed at least fifty feet from a building that was insured.

WILL HOLD BANQUET.

The annual banquet of the Men's Brotherhood of the Methodist church at Murrayville will be held Thursday evening, Jan. 23. Supper will be served in the basement of the church with plates at seventy-five cents each and it is expected that the number present will be as great as last year, which proved a record breaker. J. H. Dial will act in the capacity of toastmaster.

Rev. F. A. McCarty of Jacksonville and Rev. W. A. Smith of Virden will be among the speakers and an interesting program is being arranged.

MADE PROPERTY TRADE.

William Kastrup who has been quite active in real estate deals for a number of months yesterday closed up a deal whereby he becomes the owner of a farm of 160 acres near Mt. Sterling in Brown county. In exchange he gave to Clinton Wilgus of Mt. Sterling a White Steamer automobile, the house at the northwest corner of South Main street and West Morton avenue and the house immediately to the west of it on Morton avenue. Mr. Wilgus drove the car to Mt. Sterling yesterday.

Dr. W. H. Garrison of Pearl, Wick Claus of Tallula and Mrs. Rexroat of Concord were among the visitors Tuesday at Passavant hospital.

BUREAU OF MINES IN ANNUAL REPORT

MORTALITY RATE AMONG MINERS SHOWS DECREASE.

Improved Conditions Attributed to Work of Federal Bureau of Mines. Death List May Still Be Reduced.

Washington, Jan. 14.—One miners life is snuffed out with every 183,000 tons of coal mined in the United States. In 1907 when the federal bureau of mines was beginning its work the ratio was greater: One life was given with every 144,000 tons. Dr. Joseph A. Holmes, director of the United States Bureau of Mines in his annual report to day to Secretary Edward A. Tamm, points out the decrease in the mortality to the federal government's work in the mining fields, and points out how the enormous death list may be still further reduced.

While much remains to be done, including a broad extension of the investigation of accident and rescue work so that it will include metal and other mineral mines as well as coal mines, Dr. Holmes shows that whereas there was an average of 6.93 men killed for every 1,000,000 tons of coal mined in 1907, this number decreased steadily to 6.05 in 1908, to 5.79 the next year, 5.66 in 1910 and 5.48 in the calendar year 1911. The figures for the year just closed, it is estimated, will show further decrease in the death rate.

The death rate in the metal mines of the country is nearly as high, he declares, as in the coal fields, averaging more than three men per thousand employed; death rate in quarries is larger than it should be, averaging far more than that in foreign quarries; and the same is true in metallurgical plants. He recommends, therefore, that the bureau be given money to carry its mine-accident investigation into these other fields in larger measure than the limited appropriations so far granted have allowed.

Wastes are Mentioned.

The enormous annual loss in mining and preparing coal for market the huge waste of natural gas, as well as lack of efficiency and waste in the metal mining industries are mentioned by Dr. Holmes. This extravagance of natural resources, he asserts, should be checked.

Pioneer educational work, temporary in character is the way in which the director refers to the mine rescue and first aid work among the 15,000 mines of the country. Ultimately this must be taken care of, he says, by the coal mining companies through the training and organization of miners at each of the larger mines or groups of mines. He states that already a number of companies maintain rescue stations at their own expense. The chief purpose of the bureau of mines is to train miners in first aid, mine-rescue and fire fighting methods, and he adds that "during the year more than 20,000 miners have attended the lectures and demonstrations given from the mine-safety cars; more than 1,000 additional miners received training sufficient to enable them to participate in actual mine-rescue work, and more than twice that number have been added to the list of miners trained in first aid practice."

Health conditions in and about mines should be investigated, in the opinion of Dr. Holmes. Preliminary inquiries, he says "have indicated the prevalence of tuberculosis and the presence of hookworm as miners diseases in several different localities in the United States. It is important that this work should be extended rapidly, because of the fact that the health conditions, as well as the risk of accidents, may be influenced by conditions susceptible of easy improvement.

Influx of Foreigners.

"The large and continuous influx of foreigners into the mining regions of the United States may bring to an increasing extent the hookworm and other diseases that exist in mines in parts of certain European countries. Various questions that concern the health of workers in mines, quarries and metallurgical plants cannot be answered finally without investigations and inquiries that are national in scope. Among such questions are the most efficient methods of preventing the diseases peculiar to mining and metallurgical industries, and the most effective sanitary precautions to be observed in and about mines and in the various metallurgical occupations.

Special attention is called to some of the benefits derived, both by the government and individuals, from the bureau's fuel investigations. A saving of money and the delivery of better grade coal than would have been obtained otherwise, are mentioned in this connection. More than $5,000,000 worth of coal is brought annually by the government under specifications prepared by the bureau of mines, and additional fuel to the value of $2,000,000 is bought by it under the general advice of the bureau. The benefits have been both general and special, and real saving being several times as great as the actual money saved because of the securing of a better coal.

Investigations By Engineers. During the year every mine in the United States at which an explosion or fire of any note occurred was visited by one or more engineers of the bureau, says Director Holmes, who in cooperation with or with the approval of the state or mine officials, investigated the cause of the disaster and gave such aid as was possible in preventing further loss of life and resources. Many other mines have been investigated.

In all but two of the mines where large disastrous explosions have taken place during the last few years open lights were used he says, and if safety conditions are to be improved it seems probable that the use of electric lamps will be widely extended. The bureau has made tests showing how electric motors should be increased to render safer their operation.

eration is gaseous local mines. It has shown that explosive mixtures of mine gases may be ignited by the breaking of an electric light bulb.

The director dwells on the necessity of trying to prevent explosions rather than check them after they are started. In this connection he calls attention to the fact that there has been a "revolution in the use of explosives in coal mining," and the work of the bureau "in investigating explosives has alone a value far greater than the entire cost of maintaining the bureau since its establishment." He says that now more than 13,000,000 pounds a year are being used of "permissible explosives," whereas a few years ago practically none was used. Much can still be done in this direction, he adds "and it is of great importance that investigations should be conducted with explosives for use in the metal mines and quarries of the country."

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Amos Woodward passed peacefully away at 9 o'clock Sunday evening, Jan. 5, 1913, at her late home in Chapin. Death came from heart failure.

Elizabeth Bell Raim was born in New York City, April 12, 1839. In childhood she moved with her parents, to Mobile, Ala., where she lived for several years and then moved to Jacksonville, Ill., with her widowed mother, settling in the community then known as Diamond Grove. Later she with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Blodgett, moved to Joy Prairie, where the greater part of her life was spent.

June 18, 1861, she was united in marriage with Amos Woodward, who died in 1879.

To Mr. and Mrs. Woodward were born four children, John Winthrop, who died in infancy; Miss Julia B. Woodward, Mrs. Kate W. Wenger and Miss Margaret M. Woodward.

Early in it's history Mrs. Woodward became a member of the Congregational church in Concord, but her membership was moved later to Joy Prairie. For 67 years she lived an earnest Christian life, continuing her membership with the church of her choice.

In February 1912, she, with her two unmarried daughters, moved to Chapin.

Brief funeral services were held at the family residence in that place at 9:30 Wednesday morning, in charge of Rev. Frederic Baylis, who paid a loving tribute of respect to the departed one.

Services were continued at the Joy Prairie Congregational church, in charge of Rev. W. H. Butcher, who spoke words fitting to her long and useful life. Beautiful music was furnished by R. E. Fox, M. O. Mathews, Mrs. F. P. McKinney and Mr. and Mrs. Monte Funk. There were many beautiful flowers, which were kindly cared for by Mrs. O. H. Coultas and Mrs. E. F. Joy.

The remains were tenderly laid to rest in the Woodward burial grounds. The bearers were Messrs. John Onken, Walter Woodward, T. F. Burnham, L. P. Cowdin, W. T. Cowdin and J. S. Joy.

Besides the daughters, Mrs. Woodward leaves to mourn her loss three grandchildren, Katherine E. Wenger, Arthur A. Woodward of Decatur, Mich., one sister, Mrs. J. P. Cowdin, one brother, S. F. Blodgett of Massachusetts, and a large circle of friends. Mrs. Woodward's life was a benediction to all whom she met, and her falling asleep on a Sabbath day was in keeping with her sweet and beautiful life.

PARIS EDITOR PLEADS CASE OF EDWARD F. MYLIUS, JOURNALIST

Threatened With Deportation Because He Was Convicted In London of Labeling King George V.

Washington, Jan. 14.—Edward Polton James, editor of the "Paris Liberator," and an American citizen to day pleaded before Secretary Nagel, the cause of Edward F. Mylius, the journalist, who is threatened with deportation from Ellis Island, New York, because he was convicted in London of libelling King George V. In defense of his friend, in whose interest he crossed the Atlantic, Mr. James told the secretary of commerce and labor that Mylius had been convicted of a political offense and not a crime involving moral turpitude.

The special immigration board of inquiry at New York held that the criminal libel of a king was a crime involving moral turpitude which under the immigration laws, bars an alien from entry to America. Mr. James maintained that if there had been any offense it had been political which the immigration officers no bar.

While Mr. James would not disclose any of the details of his conference with the cabinet minister, he freely discussed the publication in the "Liberator" of the alleged libelous story that King George had contracted a morganatic marriage with the daughter of Admiral Culme-Seymour in Malta. Mr. James wrote the story and Mylius was convicted of criminal libel in connection with its distribution in London.

"I wrote it, and I now affirm it," said Mr. James tersely. "I have spent months in investigating it, and I am satisfied of its truth. If I did not believe the marriage took place I would publish unhesitatingly a retraction and apologize to King George and the then Miss Seymour."

RIVERS OUTPOINTS CROSS.

New Yorker Had Best of First Two Rounds—Mexican Proves Inferior At In Fighting.

New York, Jan. 14.—Joe Rivers, the Mexican light-weight, outpointed Leach Cross of this city in a ten round bout here tonight.

Cross had the better of the first two rounds. While the New Yorker was showering rights and lefts to the head in the first, the Mexican slipped to one knee at the ropes, but was up in an instant, adopted blocking tactics, and proved Cross superior at fighting. In the second round Cross scored the only really knock down of the bout with a left hook to the jaw. Thence on Rivers fought cleverly and was so rapid in movement that Cross frequently could not find him, losing his range and missing and becoming decidedly wild at some stages. Rivers' showing in the last eight rounds earned him a victory by a comfortable margin.

Boston, Jan. 14.—Insurance on parcel post packages may be collected only when the insured article is lost or destroyed, according to information from the third assistant postmaster general, made public by Postmaster Mansfield to day.

Wishing to know just what "loss" meant in postal parlance Postmaster Mansfield forwarded to Washington the claim of a Boston milliner for a feather valued at $220, which she said was damaged in the mail. The third assistant general wrote "that the present, the insurance of parcel post matter covers only the loss of rifling of a package, similar to what has been done in paying indemnity claims on account of domestic registered mail in the post."

EARLY BALL PLAYERS OF CITY

SOME HISTORY OF THE FAMOUS ROWE BROTHERS.

Went From the Blue Sox to the Big League and Won Fame on Diamond—Bloomington in '76 Refuses to Play Jacksonville Cause of Big Challenge Made.

Baseball teams in early days were not without their contentions. When the Blue Sox were at their zenith, trouble arose with Bloomington, who refused to play the Blue Sox, claiming "that they have several paid players, which alone bars them from the field against amateurs." Lee Cheney was manager of the Bloomington team at that time and he was the leader against the squabble with Jacksonville. The fight was up principally on Simpson, whom Jacksonville had secured from St. Louis and was really a box artist whom Bloomington feared. The Pantagraph argued that Simpson was "not eligible according to acknowledged baseball authorities" and quoted from De Witt's handbook a rule of the National Amateur association requiring sixty days to elapse after a player leaves one club before he plays with another. Jacksonville argued that being neither Jacksonville nor Bloomington were run by these rules that in no sense would the apply. Both the Bloomington papers admitted that Cheney offered to play if Simpson would be placed anywhere else than in the pitcher's box. The amount of it all was that there was too much money staked on the result by friends and stockholders of the Bloomington for Cheney to dare and risk an inevitable defeat. With an umpire of his own choosing and Simpson in the outfield Cheney was willing to risk a game, but not otherwise.

Bloomington signified that they were willing to make up a purse of $1,000 to be played for and Manager Parker of the Blue Sox said that if Bloomington "meant business" that "Jacksonville would make up a purse of $2,000 if Bloomington would do the same, both to be taken by the winning team in a match between the Bloomingtons and the Jacksonville's as at present organized, the game to be played on neutral ground, and umpired by a professional player. And the whole trouble arose because Jacksonville wallowed the Bloomingtonites and later Bloomington refused to match their team against Jacksonville.

Career of Rowe Brothers.

Nearly forty years ago Jacksonville was on the baseball map and its players then became famous throughout the country in the big league. W. H. Dalton has kindly written the following of the career of the Rowe Brothers:

"Messrs. Dave Rowe and Jack Rowe, who achieved such prominence and notoriety on the baseball world, were residents of Jacksonville and learned to play ball on the Walcott pasture, lying between North Main street and North East street, long since built up with houses and manufacturing industries, the same place where the old Hardins and Hercules of 1867, '68 and '69 used to romp; also the Alerts.

"Their professional career began when they signed with Peoria of the Three-I league. Their services were then secured by Tom Loftus, then managing the 'Dubuke's', one of the best teams in the country. After two seasons with Dubuque, Ia., the boys separated, Jack joining the National league with Buffalo, N. Y., having as associates Dan Brothers, Deacon White, Hardy Richardson, known as the Big 4, and were sold to Detroit for many thousand dollars. They were a quartet of the best in the 'biz', each of whom drew a big salary.

"Jack continued professional baseball until too old to deliver the goods, then bought a big retail cigar store in Buffalo, where he lived until death called him some three years ago.

"Dave had quite a checkered career, playing on many teams. He was in Denver, Colo., for several years, with the Western league. Next he was with the Metropolitans (American association) of New York. While there his work was of a high order, so much so that it appealed to A. C. Anson (old Anso) of the Chicago, and he was signed for them, but did not play out the season, having a good offer from Omaha to manage that team he accepted and gave to Omaha, some winner.

"Last I heard of Dave he was traveling out of Omaha for a wholesale liquor house, selling something that neither he nor his brother ever indulged in. His present location is not known to me."

BEGIN FIGHT FOR DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF LIFE ON TITANIC

Claimants Allege That Company is Liable For Damages Because Loss Was Due to Personal Negligence.

New York, Jan. 14.—Fifty lawyers who hope to obtain for their clients more than $10,000,000 damages for loss of life and property on the steamer Titanic, were arrayed against attorneys for the White Star Line in the United States district court today, the expiration of the time limit set by the court for filing suits. The limit was extended to February 11th.

The White Star Line contends that its entire liability is limited under the United States statutes to less than $10,000,000. American claimants allege that the line cannot claim this limitation because it was itself responsible for the loss of life by reason of personal negligence. If their assertion in this respect is sustained, the claimants will recover full damages. But even if this claim is not upheld, the contention of A. L. Brougham, representing 200 claimants, is that the White Star Line's liability can only be limited by the provisions of the British law which would compel the company to pay total damages of about $3,000,000.

Illinois College Chorus, Friday, Jan. 17, Westminster church.

COMPLETES IOWA BILL

Senator Thomas Asks Large Sum for Iowa Building at San Francisco. Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 14.—State Senator Charles H. Thomas of Kent today completed a bill appropriating $175,000 for an Iowa building and exhibit for the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco in 1915. The bill will be presented at the present session of the legislature and its friends say it will be passed.

Senator Thomas said today: "Iowa was represented at Chicago with a $125,000 appropriation and at St. Louis for a like amount. The state is much richer and we ought to let the people of California, who are former Iowans know what they missed by leaving us. It will cost more to erect the building and take the exhibit to San Francisco and that is the reason I have asked for a larger sum than we appropriated for Chicago and St. Louis."

Andrews.

Frank J. Andrews, a long time and well known resident of Jacksonville, passed from earth at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning at his late home on West Lafayette avenue. He had been in failing health for an extended period but his last illness covered a period of but nine days. Mr. Andrews was born June 7, 1840, in the island of Madeira and so when the final summons came to him was a little more than 72 years and 7 months of age.

The deceased was a son of John S. and Antonia Andrews and came with his mother to this city fifty-seven years ago, the father having died in Madeira. After coming to this city as a lad of 15 years he entered the old first district school of which at varying times Judge E. P. Kirby, Newton Bateman and R. M. Tunnell were principals. He early showed his aptitude for literary work and before coming to this country although a mere lad had helped his mother in the conduct of a school. This same tendency was apparent in his school work here and he was not long in mastering the English language. From the Jacksonville district school he went to Illinois college and was a student there in the same class with Mr. Ensley Moore. He made a good record there and made especial progress in language work. He was a member of Sigma Pi society.

While a young man Mr. Andrews united with Grace M. E. church and held his membership there until the time of his death. For many years he sang in the church choir and he was a devoted worker in various departments of the church. Kindly in spirit, ever hopeful for the best, Mr. Andrews continually went on his way with a song in his heart and often upon his lips and he lived a life of devoted, useful service to the church, his family and the community at large.

Forty-seven years ago he was united in marriage to Miss Mary J. Vieira, who survives him. Their home life has been devoted and happy and now as the father has been taken the mother lies seriously ill at the family home. Two sons also survive, Benjamin C. Andrews of this city and H. F. Andrews of Henry, Ill. There are five grandchildren, Ethelene, Blair and McNeal, children of Benjamin Andrews, and Thomas E. of Winnepeg, and E. Ormond of Chicago, children of H. F. Andrews. The deceased leaves also two brothers, E. C. Andrews of this city and J. L. Andrews of Tucumcari, N. M. Three brothers, A. J., Manuel, J. R., and one sister, Miss Jennie, have gone on before.

Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

Mrs. Bert Redding of North Dakota and Mrs. May Clayton of Salem, Ore. He is survived by his second wife and there were no children from this marriage. Mr. Crim was a life long member of the Methodist church. His son of this city has gone to Dawson to attend the funeral services.

OHIO RIVER RISING.

Cairo, Ill., Jan. 14.—The Ohio river is rising slowly here, the gauge tonight registering 41.1 feet. The government predicts the crest of the flood will be reached next Tuesday with a mark of 48 feet. The danger at this point is increased by the running of ice in the Mississippi river.

FAIL IN ATTEMPT TO REVOKE RULING

tending for retention of the present duties in the schedule.

S. P. Ker, of Sharon, Pa., president of the Sharon Steel Hoop company, advocated conditions in the phraseology of the law to avoid importers taking advantage of its terms. Mr. Ker told of plans now under way by the United States steel corporation to advance the wage of its common laborers and artisans and mechanics on February 1, approximately 10 per cent. Representative Fordney estimated that this would mean an advance of $17,500,000.

Mr. Ker expressed optimism of the future of the steel industry regardless of what action the Democratic administration might take. Mr. Underwood asked as to the reasons for the United States steel corporation's proposed increase of wages. Mr. Ker said he thought "that the corporation was taking time by the forelock to hold its laborers."

Affairs of the Waltham Watch company of Waltham, Mass., also were taken up by the committee which continued its session far into the night.

Confirm Witherspoon's Appointment.

Washington, Jan. 14.—William W. Witherspoon was today confirmed as a major general of the United States army by the senate by a vote of 36 to 14, after a prolonged fight behind closed doors. The ratification of his appointment sent to the senate by President Taft last August and again in December ends a long struggle to advance the former president of war college to West Point grade in the military service. Senator Bristow of Kansas led the fight against the promotion of General Witherspoon from the rank of brigadier general to the rank of major general. He declared the officer had not had sufficient field experience.

To protect the senate against the necessity of giving necessary time to protected impeachment trials in the future Senator Pomerene of Ohio, today introduced a joint resolution in the senate providing for an amendment of the constitution so as to authorize congress to provide other means of impeachment in minor cases than those now afforded.

Under the constitution as it stands all impeachment cases must be tried in the senate. Mr. Pomerene would still have the senate pass upon all efforts to have the president and vice-president and members of the supreme court, but would give authority for a change in all other impeachment proceedings.

GIVE SECOND RECEPTION.

Washington, Jan. 14.—The president and Mrs. Taft gave the second reception of their last winter in the white house tonight with the justices of the supreme court, justices of the federal tribunals of the country and of Washington and the officials of the department of justice as guests of honor.
